

Age:

17 Years Old

Region:

Speyside

Color:

Golden

Nose:

Clean and balanced heather, herbs, sherry, toffee and a fragrant smoke.

Body:

Full bodied and mouth coating.

Palate:

Complexity of peaches, pears, pastry, with sherry developing slowly rather tasting like dark fruit.

Finish:

Long and dry with oak and hints of spice.

ABV:

43%

Awards:

SFWSC 2009 Double Gold

Price:

$$ -Great price for its age.

Glenfarclas distillery has remained independent and continuously in operation through six generations.

Buy now at our partner

The Whisky Shop.

SUGGESTED CHOCOLATE PAIRING

Chao - Grignottine \(Citrus Crunch\) & Miel \(Nut & Honeylicious\)

The caramelized orange Click here to purchase notes well with the sherry flavor, while the Miel provides

SUGGESTED CIGAR PAIRING

Joya de Nicaragua Antano 1970

Matching the complexity Click here to purchase bodied Glenfarclas 17 year old single malt. The light fru